Turin, April 14. N. S.

THE French Forces which have Wintered in Savoy are now marching into Piedmont, by the way of the Valley of Aousta; and the reſt of their Troops are likewiſe in motion. They are making a Bridge over the Po at Chivas, in which Place, as well as at Suſa, they lay up great Stores of Proviſions and Ammunition. They have begun to demoliſh the Fortifications of Ivrea. On our ſide no time is loſt in perfecting our new Fortifications, and making all the Preparations that are neceſſary for our Defence.

Warſaw, April 23. The Muſcovite Forces are in motion, and are to rendezvous at Breſcici: The Czar himſelf is marched thither from Minsky with the Troops he lately brought from Muſcovy and the Coſſacks under the Command of General Mazeppa, who joined him at the Place laſt mentioned; and the Muſcovite Forces which lay at Grodno have been on their March ever ſince the 8th Inſtant. General Baur, with the Body of Muſcovite Troops under his Command, is coming from Courland to Lithuania, to join Prince Wiſnowiski, who has with him about 8000 Poles; and the Swediſh General Lewenhaupt is marching the ſame way with a Body of Troops, in order to obſerve their Motions. We hear that a Detachment of Swediſh Forces has lately defeated one of about 2500 Coſſacks near Nieſwitz. They write from Wilna, That the Swedes have demanded a conſiderable Sum of that City by way of Contribution, part of which was paid them in Money or Goods; and they took ſeveral Perſons with them as Hoſtages for the remainder, and carried them away to their Camp at Zoludki. It is ſaid, they ſhortly expect conſiderable Supplies of Men, Money and Ammunition, from Sweden.

Vienna, April 24. N. S. A conſiderable number of Recruits arrived lately from Bohemia for our Troops in Italy, which were immediately ſent away thither. The Principality of Tranſilvania being now entirely freed from the Malecontents, the Daniſh Troops which were ſent thither about half a Year ago with General Herbeville are recalled, and have already begun to march this way. The Troops on both ſides in Hungary continue very quiet, in expectation of the Iſſue of the Negociation that is carrying on for reſtoring the Peace and Tranquility of thoſe Parts. Our laſt Letters from thence left the Emperor's Troops commanded by General Palfy near Altembourg. Count Budiani, who ſome time ſince was defeated near Five Churches by the Imperial Forces under General Herberſtein, is now at Fedwar, where he has been joined by the Malecontents under the Command of Stephen Andreaſti. There lay another Body of Malecontents in the County of Oedembourg. Several Barks laden with Proviſions and Ammunition, with Soldiers on board to guard them, are to be ſent very ſpeedily down the Danube to Comorra, Gran and Buda, to ſupply the Magazines of thoſe Towns.

Augsbourg, April 30. The Count de Lewenſtein, Adminiſtrator of Bavaria, is lately returned to Munich from the Imperial Court, where he has been to receive Inſtructions concerning ſeveral new Regulations to be made for the better Government of that Electorate, and the more effectual ſecuring it againſt ſuch Attempts as were made not long ſince to deprive it of the Tranquility it now enjoys under the Emperor's Government. It has been reſolved to diſmantle the Town of Braunau, to ſave the Expence of keeping a Gariſon there; and that Work is already in good forwardneſs. General Kirchbaum is lately come to Newbourg, to haſten the March of the Palatine Troops that are to proceed from thence to Italy.

Maſtricht, May 5. N. S. The Sieurs Van Cortiene and Hop, Deputies of the Council of State, came hither the 30th paſt to view the Fortifications and Magazines of this Place, as they intend likewiſe to do thoſe of Haſſelt and Tongeren. The Count d'Auvergne went from hence this week to his Government of Haſſelt. The Forces of which the Confederate Army in the Netherlands, for the Service of the enſuing Campaign, is to be compoſed, are for the moſt part quartered in our Neighbourhood, and the reſt arrive daily in theſe Parts from their ſeveral Gariſons. Major-General Dompre is come to his Quarter at Haren, and the reſt of the General Officers are ſuddenly expected at their reſpective Poſts. The French are likewiſe drawing their Forces together upon the Frontiers. The Regiment of Sonderbourg, which has been quartered here during the Winter, marched the 30th paſt to Tongeren, from whence the Regiment of Haſſelt arrived here the next day.
